

SOFTWARE TESTER

Seeking Software Tester to help with testing of B2B mortgage lending platform for a Company in the Finance Industry. Main responsibility will be part of the software development process, preparing data and tests for all testing phases, executing of test cases, monitoring bug tracking process, reviewing documentation and reporting results of testing activities.

Responsibilities:

- Preparing and execution of test cases and release plans for Desktop, Web and REST API applications
- Proper and timely reporting of findings and testing results according to project procedures
- Defect reporting and monitoring
- User and documentation support

Requirements:

- Ability to develop, write, and execute test plans and test cases based on requirements documents and use cases
- Responsible, good in self-time management; good team player; has analytical thinking, fast in learning
- Ability to work both independently and as a team member
- Coding skills (Java, C#, SQL or similar) and experience in test automation will be a big advantage
- Fluency in English, Latvian, Russian – ability to read and write technical documents and communicate with users
- Willingness to learn

We offer:

- Challenging environment for professional and personal growth
- Working in inspiring team using Agile methodologies with motivated and friendly colleagues
- Competitive salary and extra benefits

